TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

WHAT GOD HAS JOINED TOGETHER.

MARK 10:9

OUR MISSION

We the people of San Antonio parish strive to be a community of faith, hope, and love. We find our identity and mission in Jesus Christ and His Gospel. We celebrate our life as Catholic Christians in word, worship, and service. By recognizing our baptism, we accept our call to personal renewal and reach out with the gospel message to families and individuals, extending an invitation to fellowship with us.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

First Friday of the month 9:00 am to 8:30 pm. Our next Adoration is November 1st.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE

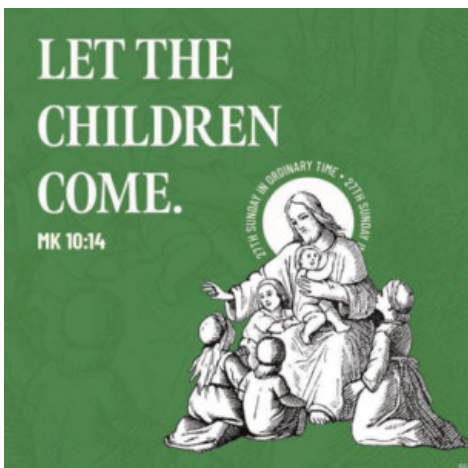

God,

Pour Your blessings upon those You have called to marriage. Strengthen the bonds of their unions. May Your love be revealed in the ways they cherish and support each other, in good times and bad, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health.

Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

As a young pastor years ago, I met with a middle-aged couple who had been divorced and civilly remarried. They were frustrated that an annulment had to precede a Church marriage. Sympathizing with their plight, I promised to walk with them along their journey. Once as we sat in my office, the man said to me, “Why is the Church so difficult on marriage?” I replied, “Actually, Jesus’ teaching is what’s difficult.” He furrowed his brow and asked what I meant.

We opened the Bible and together read today’s gospel passage from Mark 10:12 in which Jesus says, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another, commits adultery with her...” My two friends sat in silent astonishment. Surely Jesus understands the complexities of human life and sexual love. The words hung thick and heavy in the air. How could the merciful Lord be so seemingly unrealistic in his expectations, especially with so much divorce and remarriage in our world?

I didn’t know what to say. So, we kept reading. Next, Jesus says, “Let the children come to me.” The innocence of children allows them to receive and give love, to trust unconditionally, to believe in love that endures. Most children aren’t yet jaded by statistics, broken hearts, or dysfunctional relationships. Children remind us of the world to come. The couple and I began to talk about child-like trust in Jesus and his teaching, and we continued to move forward. When it comes to the Church’s demanding teaching on marriage, it’s best to approach it as trusting children, whatever situations in which we find ourselves.

- Father John Muir

Sunday Readings

Reading 1

Gn 2:18-24

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said:

"This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken."

That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6

R. (cf. 5) May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Blessed are you who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork; blessed shall you be, and favored.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants around your table.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD. The LORD bless you from Zion: may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

May you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel!

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

Reading 2

Heb 2:9-11

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels," that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

1 Jn 4:12

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is brought to perfection in us.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 10:2-12

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Faith Formation

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

INTRODUCING FAITH FACTORY AND ROOTED PROGRAMS!

We are thrilled to welcome back our parish children to the renewed and re-energized Religious Education program! Our Faith Factory Kids gatherings will serve children in Pre-K (or age 3) through 5th grade. Faith Factory gatherings will meet on Sundays, Mondays, and Wednesdays throughout the school year. The Rooted Middle School Ministry will bring together young teens in Grades 6 through 8 and will meet on Monday nights. If you have not registered your children for this special ministry yet, don't fret! Our registration is still open, and we would be overjoyed to have your children and family join us in growing closer to Jesus! Simply visit our church website to register (www.sanantoniochurch.org) or call our office at (714) 974-2053.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is held every Sunday at the 10:00am Mass. We invite all children in Grades 1 through 6 to join us as we dive into the day's gospel reading and children learn of Jesus' words and deeds on their level. Children will be dismissed from Mass and return to their parents upon completion of the homily. We are filled with hope and anticipation as we begin this new year with you and your family!

SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS

First Reading:

Today's reading from Genesis provides the foundation for our Christian understanding of marriage. Who in your life has a happy and successful marriage?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews teaches us we are united with Jesus as one family in our suffering and death. Are there any family members who need your support and comfort this week?

Gospel:

The Pharisees learned that Jesus holds a higher standard on marriage than even Moses. Does Jesus's position on marriage surprise you?

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

To follow Jesus, we must cast off all illusions of importance and wisdom. We must embrace our own smallness, rejoice in our own weakness.

In doing that, we become like true children, and discover the saving strength of our God.

SACRISTANS URGENTLY NEEDED

Being a Sacristan is a wonderful way to serve your church and an active way to participate in Mass. The Sacristan prepares and oversees the Sacred Vessels required for Mass.

It requires approximately 15 minutes of time prior to Mass, and 5-10 minutes after Mass. Volunteers must be responsible, mature, and reliable. (Age 21 and above) Training will be provided. Daily and/or Weekend Masses. Please contact Brenda through the Church Office.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

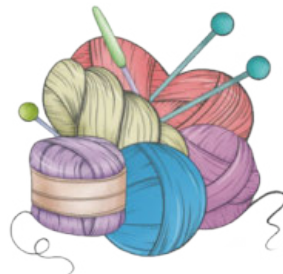

On the first Tuesday of the month, after the weekday 8:30am Mass, presiding clergy will provide the Anointing of the Sick for those who stay after Mass. The next Anointing will be on November 5, 2024.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

We meet the first Tuesday of each month 7:00-8:30pm in the MPR, and the third Thursday of each month 10:00am-12:00pm in Conference Room #1.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry serves the parish community by providing prayer shawls for anyone suffering challenges in their life. We welcome new members and have teachers available to help you get started on your shawls.

To donate yarn, make monetary donations, or learn more about our ministry, please check our website: <https://sanantoniochurch.org/ministries/prayer-shawl-ministry>

GRIEF SUPPORT MINISTRY

Mission Statement: To offer care, comfort, fellowship for those experiencing the loss of a loved one. We strive to provide an emotionally safe environment for the bereaved to freely express their grief, without judgement.

We host Grief Support meetings in Conference Room 1 the first and third Saturday of each month at 9:30 - 11am.

Our group leader is Elizabeth Gooch. Should you have any questions, please contact Fr. Tuan: priest102@sanantoniochurch.org

Dear Family Members,

We once again express our condolences to your family as we are reminded that on Saturday, November 2, 2024, Catholics around the world celebrate the annual ALL SOULS DAY memorial.

This holy day is set aside to remember, honor, and pray for our faithful departed loved ones. At San Antonio de Padua Church, we are offering a memorial Mass in memory of all from our parish and for those that had funerals of loved ones at our parish this year. We invite you and your families to join us on Saturday, November 2, for the 10:00am morning Mass to remember, honor, and pray for your deceased loved one. Roses will be handed out to family members so that when your loved one's name is announced, you can bring the rose up to the altar. If you would like to bring a memento of your loved one, there will be a table set up near the altar.

Please contact the front office to advise how many in your family would like to have a rose.

Kind regards,

Becki Krupsky
Office Manager ext. 109

SILENT AUCTION WRAP UP

Our Silent Auction team spent much of the summer working to make our booth a huge success! For many who do not know what happens behind the scenes to create those amazing baskets, here is a glimpse:

We send out letters to solicit from businesses early in the summer, and we ask parishioners to donate. Meanwhile, we set up a workspace in the same rooms where the silent auction is held. Supplies are ordered and we start organizing donations as they come in. Our team stages baskets, creates an inventory of the basket items, and our talented wrappers create a basket that is a work of art. There is computer work involved in numbering and creating bid sheets. It's a lot of work, but we are committed to supporting Fiesta and San Antonio Church. Please acknowledge these ladies next time you see them and thank them for their work: Dawn Alberty, Brenda Ames, Chris Born, Beth Kemmis-Byers, Jo Ann Foster, Renee Gillespie, Madeline Gregorian, Leslie Grayson, Maria Micallef, Diana Perez, Lauri Schulze, Sherry Wakely, and Janet Whitcomb.

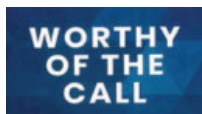

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL MINISTRY

Our next Eucharistic Adoration is on Nov. 1, 2024, 9:00 am - 8:30 pm. "Eucharistic adorers share Mary's life and mission of prayer at the foot of the Most Blessed Sacrament. It is the most beautiful of all missions, and it holds no perils. It is the most holy, for in it all the virtues are practiced." - St. Peter Julian Eymard

OCTOBER IS MISSION MONTH

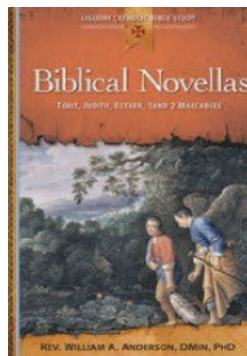

As we begin the month of October, we enter a special period of reflection and action for our Church's missionary efforts worldwide. World

Mission Sunday, which will be celebrated on October 20th, is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to all corners of the world. The contributions collected on World Mission Sunday are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission in over 1,150 territories where the Church is still young or struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we have the opportunity to give back and support our brothers and sisters around the globe. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to engage fully in this mission throughout the month.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Women's Bible Study will begin Tuesday, October 1, 9:00- 11:00am in the MPR. The study in the fall will be the Liguori commentary book, Biblical Novellas, on Tobit, Judith, Esther, and 1 & 2 Maccabees.

"In times of crisis, there always remains the faithful few: men and women who go to great lengths to show mercy and provide hope to those around them and the entire world. With courage and dedication, they attest to life after death and shun the common traps of seeking favor and bending to human will. The books of the Bible explored in this volume tell the stories of such people, most of which occurred well after the Babylonian exile." - Father William Anderson

For questions, contact Jeanne Carden through the San Antonio website, sanantoniochurch.org, and select Ministries.
